LIQUIDATION SALE

from the

F. C. Barber & Sons

Popular and Fashionably Bred Herds of

Villager
Shorthorns

TWO DAYS

Wednesday and Thursday
April 23 and 24, 1924
Skidmore, Mo.

Announcement

This is a liquidation sale, composed of a draft from the herds of W. F. Barber and F. C. Barber, of Skidmore, Mo., R. N. Barber of Burlington Junction, Mo., and a complete dispersion of the herd of H. W. Montgomery of Skidmore (formerly the J. W. Barber herd), the offering comprising 20 bulls, 20 cows with calves at foot, 15 open heifers and the remainder of the offering of 90 head are bred cows and heifers. Included are a number of breeding cows that heretofore have been on the "not for sale" list, in that they were members of the breeding herds of F. C. Barber Sons, and it was their progeny that established the reputation of the Villager Shorthorns, a family that in the past few years and today rank among the favored few of the Shorthorn breed.

This sale offers a rare opportunity to men whose vision of the future is not oppressed by the depressive conditions of the past two years. The cattle industry is today enjoying the same optimistic outlook that preceded the good selling conditions of eight or ten years back. The sale reports show a stronger demand for bulls today than has existed for over three years, while she stuff is now selling at its lowest ebb, making this a most opportune time to lay in a few good females of choice breeding at practically market prices. When bulls outsell females in the auction sales it means but one thing—a decreasing production. This always precedes the rise in the cattle industry, and the next few months will show an increasing demand for breeding cows and heifers, of herd bull productiveness.

Villager Shorthorns have given to the breed many notable outstanding individuals that have been great factors in breed improvement.

The sales and show records of the past prove their desirability as foundation breeding cattle. And, many of the good breeding cows that have contributed to their rise in the annals of the breed are accessible in this sale. It's an opportunity, Mr. Breeder, that you have been waiting for; that means better cattle and a foot-hold on the ladder of success for the future. Do today what you will have no apologies to offer for tomorrow. Get in now on the ground floor. The elevator of demand will carry you to the top in the future as in the past—if you have what the public demands.

This sale includes the dams of practically all the cattle of the F. C. Barber & Sons' show herds of the past, and whose female progeny comprise the reserve breeding herds retained for the future.
